CLASSES

SENIORS

FLOWER: Carnation

COLOR: Royal Blue and White

MOTTO: Give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you.

The Senior class of 1949 may have been the smallest class in C. H. S. but this did not keep it from accomplishing much to attain honors for our school.

In the athletic department our football players were Darwin Ogburn, Dean Bassett, Marvin Garner, Bennie Johnson, Wayne Frederick, Marlin Pearson, Carroll Little, Sam Bixler, and Dick Scott. During the basketball season Darwin Ogburn, Dean Bassett, Marvin Garner, and Bennie Johnson stepped onto the floor and fought hard to win honors for the Red Raiders.

On November 19, 1948, we presented the three-act melodrama, "Kind Lady" with a cast which included Dick Scott, Mark Bain, LaRu Butler, Anita Rogers, Lorene Farmer, Joan Fife, Fred Andrews, Eugene Van Pelt, Patty Beath, Darwin Ogburn, Bob Leonard, Mary Ryan, Nadine Costin, and Wayne Fuller.

National Honor Society members were Joan Fife and Eugene Van Pelt. O(ur representatives to Student Council were Bob Leonard, Fred Andrews, Anita Rogers, Darwin Ogburn, and Dean Bassett.

Anita Rogers was the 1948 Homecoming Queen and Nadine Costin was her senior attendant. Evelyn Showers was Red Raider beauty attendant. The music department received the benefit of having several outstanding seniors' voices among its choral groups. Betty Groff and Evelyn Showers were cheerleaders for two years and Jeanette McGregor was drum major of the band for three.

The class sponsors, who did much to make the class a progressive one, were Mr. Fetters and Mrs. Turner.

Though all of these contributions may not be remembered in future years, there is something left that will make the students and visitors of C. H. S. in the years to come aware of the fact that the class of '49 existed. This is the electric water cooler, which was purchased as our gift to the school that gave so much to us.

CLASS WILL

We, the senior class of Corning High School, being of sound body and questionable mind, hereby do make this, our last will and testament.

Cyrus Frederick Andrews leaves his elevated shoes to Jasper Ambrose

Patty Beath's Bali dance goes to Bert McGregor. It's better without a two-way stretch!!!

Markus "Waldo" Bain presents his "pull," and we do mean "pull," to "Red" Hatton. Waldo knows he can use it.

Joyce McManis, Dean Bassett's best girl, is left by him to the most trustworthy member of the junior class he can think of, John Rumley.

Bill Keever gratefully bestows his job at Keever's Hardware to Phyllis Riegel. He hopes a woman can preserve better order.

Samuel Cole Bixler, Romeo of the senior class, leaves his eye for the redheads, and all the other girls, but especially the redheads to Roger Walford.

To Joan Brown, with compliments, goes Delores Boswell's tall, slim figure.

LaRu Butler leaves her line (ability to talk) to Evelyn Kempton.

Marcia Bycroft leaves her common sense to Maxine McGregor and hopes that she puts it to good use.

Dean Carothers' Ford is willed to Dick Russell in order that he may use it as a taxi for all the girls next year.

Karmit Cooney presents his last year's growth to Alice Arbuckle.

To Dale Jackson is left Barbara Cooper's perfect school attendance record. She never misses a day, you know.

Gene Costin leaves all his Lenox girls to Bert Peckham, as if he needed them!!

Dorothy Kennedy is to receive Nadine Costin's old Ford as soon as possible. Warning, watch out for the hole in the floor of the back seat.

Lydia wills her love for Stud to anyone she can get to take it.

Lorene Farmer leaves her position at Dunham's Drug Store to anyone who doesn't mind working with Mark Bain.

After much thought and hesitation, Joan Fife wills all blackmail material about Bob, Fred and Mark to Carolee Duncan in hopes that she gets as much hush money.

Wayne Frederick leaves his friendly manner to Ardyce Clement.

Wayne Fuller's brain is bequeathed to Donald Norton. Now he can loaf and still pass.

Betty Groff leaves her "going steady" attitude to Dorothy Brown. She warns, in a pleasing tone of voice, to keep away from Frank.

Arlene Hargan wills her ability to drive Rosy's car to Wilma Preston, that is, if she dosen't wreck it before commencement.

Bennie leaves his shapley legs to Wimp Roberts. Oh, you lucky, lucky junior girls.

JUNIORS

The junior class of "48" and "49" have by this time proven their abilities and capabilities in many fields. Our president is Max Stillinger; vice-president, John McEwen; and secretary and treasurer, Lewis Roberts.

This class consists of 65 members under the sponsorship of Mrs. Mahlon Collins, Milan Miller, and Mrs. Lou Ellen Henderson.

Participants in the football field this year were as follows: George Fry, Eddie Mullin, Jim Bixler, Alan Sullivan, Carl Frederick and Ronald Walter. In basketball we have Eddie Mullin, Donald Norton and Ronald Law.

As for the girls' sports, we had eleven GAA members.

We are exceptionally well represented in the musical department, such as mixed chorus, girls' glee, and small vocal and instrumental groups. Band members have greatly increased within the last year.

Much interest has been shown in the speech department also, such as contest work, one-act plays, etc.

Our class attendant to the Homecoming Queen was Theresa Goetz and our Red Raider annual queen candidate was Martha Havens. We are sure everyone feels we were well represented at both occasions.

We are all planning and looking forward to the Junior-Senior Prom this spring when we entertain the seniors. This is our biggest event of the year and we hope that it will take the place of all the parties we talked of and would have liked to have had.

SOPHOMORES

Under the able supervision of its class sponsors, Miss Kazebeer and Mr. Zeigler, the sophomores did much to bring honor to the school this year. Its 75 members proved themselves ambitious and capable in all phases of school life.

Various extra-curricular activities claimed many. Athletics was no exception. The class is proud of the work of Dick Darrah, Jim Scott, Eugene Rauch, Bill Widener, Ronald Bycroft, Wendell Groff, Harold Damewood, Ronald Bassett, Louis Kennedy and Drexel Lundquist both on the football field and in the gym.

Musical talents were also displayed by girls and boys of the class participating in mixed chorus, girls' and boys' glee and many smaller vocal groups. Band and small groups clamed their share of the students, too.

Sophomores were found in F. F. A., Hi-y, Y-Teens, G. A. A., Pep Club, Homemaking Club and as student projection operators as well.

In the "Look" department, Phyllis Kingery and Beatrice Bozwell supplied the glamour. The former was attendant to the Homemaking Queen and the latter, the candidate for Red Raider Queen.

On the Student Council the class was represented by Ronald Bassett and Phyllis Driskill, serving for the year, and Eugene Rauch and Ruth Palmer, each serving one semester.

Class officers were : President—Ronald Bycroft, Vice-President—Edward Cullen.

Scholastic work, together with all the many different activities, made their school year 1948-1949 a very successful one.

The class officers are: President—Edward Lawrence and treasurer—Howard Van Pelt. Eldon Lacy, Joan Talty and Daniel Turner are Student Council members from ou class.

The freshman class has shown great interest in extra-curricular activities. It has several members in band, mixed chorus, both boys' and girls' glee clubs as well as small music groups. Susan Lauber is on the paper staff. We are proud to have had a member from our class Mary Lou Richey, in the contest play "Sure As You're Born." Several freshman boys have taken an interest in athletics and as a result Edward Lawrence, Darwin Long and Paul Sullivan received letters. Conrad Amons, Edward Lawrence, Arthur McClelland and Howard Van Pelt are freshman boys who play on the freshman-sophomore basketball team. Eldon Lacy plays on the first-team basketball squad.

SPEECH

CONTEST PLAY

The contest play, "Sure As You're Born," is the story of a boisterous, blustering, havoc-producing 13-year old boy, Wilbur Maxwell. His parents, as they try to help Wilbur "cram" for his school quiz, wonder why he couldn't have been a sweet, innocent girl like his two sisters, Connie and Betty Lou. Then, when Mr. Maxwell is sitting by himself in the livingroom and bemoaning, his fate, Mr. Jones, Mr. Maxwell's guardian angel, drops in and announces that his wish is granted. In strolls Wilbur, now a girl, and his parents troubles have even increased. The whole incident proves to be very amusing and interesting to the audience.

This play was presented in the pre-district speech contest in Corning on March 4, in the district contest in Clarinda on March 23, and at the Tarkio Speech Festival on March 17.

The plot showed how a dignified and aristocratic middle-aged woman, living quietly in her London home, is gradually surrounded by a family of diabolically clever crooks who, by means of ingenious plotting, alienate her family and friends from her and practically convince the outside world that the kind lady is hopelessly insane. She herself, too, toward the end becomes almost convinced of this fact.

As the exciting mystery surrounding her life and actions becomes intensified, the suspense brooding over the house takes on the most dramatic proportions. Up to the end it looks as though the kind lady were doomed to lose not only her entire property but her sanity, when with a supreme effort of courage and skill, she manages to convey word to the outside world of the true situation.

BAND

JEANETTE McGREGOR

The band was organized the first week of school and started marching in preparation for the home football games and out-of-town engagements.

Its out-of-town engagements were Nodaway—Corn Festival, Clarinda—Inda-Clar. Celebration, Red Oak—Monte-Festa, Audubon— Annual Band Festival, Glenwood—State Contest, at which the band received a II rating.

The marching band performed at all the home football games and at one out-of-town game at Bedford on Armistice Day. It led the Homecoming Parade for the afternoon procession and also preceded the Queen and her attendants at the game during the half-time ceremony. The band also marched for the benefit of the local hospital drive.

The concert band was organized immediately after the football season in preparation for the first concert of the year. This was given November 23, 1948. A Christmas program was presented to the high school on December 20.

The next concert was given on February 23, 1949. At this time 11 solos, 10 ensembles and the band performed. The program presented the different instrumental events that were to enter the state Contests. An Easter concert was also given.

On March 12, 1949, the State Preliminary Music Contest for solos and ensembles was held at Corning and there were 21 instrumental events entered by Corning. Of this 21, the Trumpet Trio, Mixed Clarinet Quartet, Trombone Quartet, Saxophone Quartet, Baritone Euphonium Solo by Joann Brown, and Alto Clarinet Solo by Roberta Zeigler received I ratings. There were 12 II ratings and 3 III ratings.

The solos and ensembles, as well as the concert band, went to the Tarkio College Fine Arts Festival, March 17-18, 1949. Superior ratings were given to the Mixed Clarinet Quartet, Woodwind Trio, Trumpet Trio, Alto Clarinet Solo, and the Concert Band.

The band participated in the State Preliminary Music Contest at Red Oak on April 8 and 9. Additional state contests were held at Shenandoah and Boone.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

It was in the year of 1919 that the idea of the National Honor Society was first born. The father of this idea was J. G. Masters, the principal of Central High School in Omaha, Nebraska. From 1919 to 1921 various committees were developing this plan and in 1922 the charter was approved and the emblem designed. The idea spread rapidly. In 1922 there were twelve chapters in the United States and in 1945 there were 2,882 chapters.

Corning's Honor Society was set up in 1937 under the direction of the superintendent, Mr. Borreson. In 1938, twelve charter members were admitted. At the present time, there are 102 members of which there are 48 boys and 54 girls.

The four criteria by which the students are admitted are service, scholorship, character and leadership. It is the requirement of Corning's constitution character and leadership. It is true the requirement of Corning's constitution that the students must be of the upper one-third of their class. Only 15% of the membership of the class may be admitted, 5% of which may be admitted during their junior year. The students are voted upon by the faculty members and any faculty member may propose students to be voted upon.

The membership is for life but any member whose standards become lower than those required by the organization may be dropped by a majority vote of the members.

Mr. Wallick, Eugene Van Pelt, Joan Fife, Miss Mack, Miss Emrich

The National Thespian Dramatic Honor Society, troupe number 315, was issued its charter April 1, 1944 with twelve charter members. The club is now composed of 75 members, many of whom are alumni. Membership continues throughout one's life.

Qualifications for Thespian membership are based on a point system. A two-thirds vote of the organization is required before a new member is accepted. Each new member must undergo both a formal and an informal initiation before his membership is final.

The purpose of the society is to create a more active and intelligent interest in dramatic arts among boys and girls in high school. The motto is: "Act well your part, there all the honor lies." The Thespian colors of blue and gold are represented by their flowers, yellow roses and blue delphiniums. A 10-karat gold pin is given each new member.

Each year, to the boy and girl who give the most outstanding performances, an award of a 14-karat gold pin, studded either in pearls or sapphires, is given. Some of the projects which the Thespians used to raise money were selling candy at noon and after school in the school halls, and putting on one-act plays. Each year the active members of the Thespians go to a professional play.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has as its aims to be the connecting link between the students and faculty, to improve the school by certain rules, and to set an example for the school.

The members of the Council serve two semesters or one, depending upon the votes of the Students. Each class has three members in the Council. The president of the student body, an upperclassman elected by the students, is president of the Council.

The officers this year are: President—Bob Leonard, Vice-President—Fred Andrews, Secretary—Phyllis Driskill, Treasurer—Eugene Rauch (First Semester), Anita Rogers (Second semester),. Historian—Ed Mullin (First semester), Lewis Roberts (Second semester).

Members of the Council during both semesters were: Seniors—Dean Basset, Fred Andrews, Darwin Ogburn, Anita Rogers and Bob Leonard; Juniors —Max Stillinger, Ed Mullin, Lewis Roberts, Dick Huntsman; Sophomores—Eugene Rauch, Ronnie Basset, Ruth Palmer, Phyllis Driskill; Freshman—Joan Talty, Genevieve Dotson, Danny Turner and Eldon Lacy.

One of the main projects of the 1948-1949 Council was a Student Handbook which has been completed. Other projects were: Thanksgiving baskets, good manners and conduct among the students, Armistice Day assembly and Homecoming activities.

Our two sponsors are Mrs. Schulz and Mr. Currie.

Y-TEENS

The Y-Teen Club, a junior branch of the Y. W. C. A., is the largest organization in high school containing 89 members. The purpose of theY-Teen Club is to promote spiritual and social activities throughout the school.

The Y-Teen Club meets regularly twice a month. The program chairman, Joan Fife, and music chairman, Ruth Watts, work together in planning these meetings. Our first meeting was a formal initiation of new members. Vocations have been our outstanding subjects of study.

During the week preceding Christmas vacation and the week before Easter, Lillian Thomas and other members of the worship committee conducted devotional services each morning before school, with everyone invited.

The social committee headed by Beverly Heaton started the year with a rather hilarious event known as Hobo Day. At an assembly that day, Paulina Hayes was crowned Queen of the Hobos. Other events on our social calendar included a Christmas party, valentine party, farewell breakfast honoring the senior members, and a Mother-Daughter Banquet. The officers for next year and new members of the mothers' council were installed during the banquet program.

Roberta McGregor and her service committee took charge of packing the boxes for the Corning High School Junior Red Cross.

Other officers in our Y-Teen cabinet include Evelyn Showers, president; Barbara Carothers, vice-president; Joann Brown, secretary; Anita Rogers, treasurer; and Evelyn McGegor, publicity chairman.

HI-Y

The Corning Hi-Y is a member of the Southwest Iowa District and North Central Area Y. M. C. A. It is open to all sophomore, junior and senior boys that are in good standing in the school. The purpose of this organization is to create, maintain and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the school and the community. The Hi-Y's creed is clean speech, clean scholarship, clean sports and clean living.

To help meet its expenses this year, the Hi-Y sold football programs and co-sponsored with the Y-Teens the all-school carnival, and with F. F. A., a faculty basketball game. For its service projects, it purchased a Thanksgiving basket, ushered at basketball games, helped decorate for the Yulitide and assisted with bulletin boards.

The president, a secretary of the National Hi-Y Congress as well, was Eugene Van Pelt. Don Norton and Max Stillinger are members of the Southwest Iowa Council. Other local club officers are: Glen Mitchell, Vice-President; Donald Olive, Secretary; Dean Carothers, Treasurer and Dale Jackson, Chaplain.

F. F. A.

This year the Corning F. F. A. had a membership of 74. Of this number Eugene Van Pelt, Wayne Fuller, Ronald Gaskill and Verlyne Westphal were also Iowa Farmers.

Various members and teams of the club were recognized for their activities during the year. Wayne Frederick and Richard Russell attended an F. F. A. officer's training camp at Lake Okoboji in the summer. Ronald Bycroft received five ribbons and placed second in judging at the Coin Hog Show. The parlimentary team received a silver rating at the district contest. Larry Nelson, Carl and Stanley Frederick, Richard Russell and Donald Richie attended the National F. F. A. Convention at Kansas City. The basketball team, sporting new uniforms, won fifty per cent of its games.

Keeping busy with special projects, the second Parent and Son Banquet was held during the winter with an attendance of 124. The F. F. A. assembly seemed to be a "howling success" but the Homecoming float was a "flop." In the seed potato sale Ronald Richie, Bert Peckham, Wayne Frederick and Tommy Neill proved to be the best salesmen.

This year the F. F. A. is awarding a medal to the outstanding senior boy. The award is based on scholarship, leadership and projects. Eugene Van Pelt has been selected for this honor.

F. F. A. officers: President—Eugene Van Pelt, Vice-President—Richard Russell, Secretary—Charles Lundquist, Treasurer—Karmit Cooney and Reporter—Wayne Frederick.

HOMEMAKING CLUB

The Homemaking Club was organized in 1945 and this year has 29 members. Membership is composed of girls interested in Vocational Homemaking.

Members of the club and Mrs. Henderson, our sponsor, prepared and served the Thespian Banquet in December. One social event of the year was a Christmas party, enjoyed by all members.

A discussion of dating constituted the program for the year.

Students holding office for the 1948 and 1949 school year were as follows:

There are several rules that must be followed. A member cannot miss three meetings without having an excuse beforehand or he is automatically dropped from the club. The members must also sit in a group at all games.

The officers are as follows:

President—Phyllis Riegel, Vice-President—Roberta Zeigler, Secretary-treasurer—Marleta Hill, Sponsor—Mrs. Collins.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association was reorganized in 1945. The main purpose of this organization are (1) to create interest in sports, (2) to present a program to those who desire more than the regular physical education classes, and (3) to offer greater opportunities for leadership to the girls.

ATHLETICS

The cheerleaders, with their loyalty and enthusiastic feelings, have contributed much toward the support of the C. H. S. athletic teams. This last school year the cheerleaders have attended all of the home games and some of them have gone to all of the out-of-town games to help back the team. On different occasions the Pep Club went, which helped in making the cheers more effective.

Some new yells introduced this year are: Come On Boys, Hep-Hep, Hello Red-Hello White, a team locomotive and new welcome yell.

The Pep Club and the rest of the student body are led in yells by the cheerleaders. Besides leading them in yells, the cheerleaders help in maintaining good sportsmanship throughout the school. There are many yells, some of which have been composed by the cheerleaders.

The cheerleaders are elected by an all-faculty committee who are appointed by the Pep Club Sponsor. The qualifications for cheerleaders are: vigor, loud voice, enthusiasm and loyal booster for C. H. S.

VILLISCA 31 — CORNING 0

The Corning Red Raiders met the Villisca Blue Jays on their home field on September 1. The Villisca team scores were made by three long runs by Ziehe and two passes. The Raiders looked good to the local fans considering having to build practically a new team.

CORNING 0 — GREENFIELD 0

Both teams battled to a scoreless tie. Greenfield made one serious threat at the Corning Goal near the close of the second quarter, but the Raiders fought off the drive and controlled the ball until the gun sounded. Both teams substituted freely in the last quarter.

CLARINDA 32 — CORNING 6

Corning scored the first touch down from a pass by Ed Mullin to Sam Bixler. The Raiders looked good in the opening quarter but had been previously weakened by the loss of Darwin Ogburn and Eldon Lacy.

ATLANTIC 34 — CORNING 0

The Corning team fought hard, and nearly scored twice on the Trojans. Corning was overpowered by a superior Atlantic line.

SHENNANDOAH 58 — CORNING 0

The game had a bad start for the Raiders when Shennandoah won the toss to receive. Shennandoah led 7 to 0 after 22 seconds of play. Due to bad luck on passing attempts, Corning twice failed to score.

CRESTON 31 — CORNING 7

Before a large crowd of homecoming followers, the Red Raiders lost a hard game. The Raiders led at the half 7 to 6. The Creston team rallied during the half and the game ended with Creston adding more touchdowns to the one they already secured to win the game.

CORNING 21 — LENOX 17

The Corning Raiders topped Lenox for the first win of the year. Scoring came comparatively easy for the Raiders with Mullin passing to Ogburn for one, Bixler going for another around the left end, and ended with Bassett plunging through the line for one. All three extra points were good.

RED OAK 54 — CORNING 0

The game was lopsided and resulted in little excitement. It was easy to see that the Corning team was the lighter. Not once did the Raiders come very close to scoring against the Tigers, while Red Oak scored in every quarter.

CORNING — BEDFORD 19

Corning tied their last game which was the traditional Armistice Day game at Bedford. The score at the end of the first quarter was 0 to 6. The raiders were leading Bedford 12 to 6 at the half. The score at the end of the third quarter was 19 to 19.

BASKETBALL

Under Coach Ed. Johnson, the Red Raider Basketball team completed its third year in the Hawkeye Seven by tying for sixth place with Red Oak in the conference. Corning won 2 while losing 10 conference games. The Raider team won 4 and lost 2 non-conference games making a total of 6 wins to 12 loses.

Letters were won this year in basketball by Ogburn, Mullin, Bassett, Garner, Lacy, Johnson, Widener and Norton. High scorer of the season was Darwin Ogburn with 211 points. Ed. Mullin was second high scorer for the year with a total of 137 points. Ogburn was named as guard on the All-Conference first team and Mullin was named as guard on the All-Conference second team. Ogburn was given honorable mention on the All-State team.
